

The Prince's Drawing School

Easter Courses 2010

An experience of art school open to all...

Monday 22 March — Friday 26 March 10am-5pm

Etching: Mini workshop Week Tutors: Thomas Gosebruch/Lawrence Jenkins

Workshop 1 with Thomas Gosebruch: Sugar lift - imagine fresh brush and ink marks, painterly to calligraphic effects not commonly associated with etching. Over two days we will experiment with this exciting medium.

Workshop 2 with Lawrence Jenkins: Although etching is often considered a black & white medium the use of two plates can open up very exciting possibilities for colour prints. This course is a practical course designed to give the artist the chance to create & print two plate prints. Many techniques to create the plates will be examined.

 Some experience in etching would be beneficial but is not essential*

Monday 12 April — Friday 16 April 10am-5pm

The Drawing Week Tutors: Thomas Newbolt and Francis Hoyland

This is an intensive week of life drawing taught by Drawing School tutors each with a different approach. There will be a variety of life models and poses each day with individual guidance given to each student throughout the week.

 All levels including beginners are welcome*

Monday 12 April — Friday 16 April 10am-5pm

Portfolio Preparation/Develop your Practice Tutor: Harriet Miller

Five days of intensively working from the life model including some experimental techniques. If you are in the process of building a portfolio for A-levels/Foundation Art course or looking to generally improve your drawing and painting, this intensive week course is designed to inspire and guide you. It is open to all ages from 16+. The experienced tutor is there to support and advise you through the week to achieve finished works and/or works in progress that contribute toward your portfolio application.

 All levels including beginners are welcome*
